ANNOUNCEMENTS

EVELYN FLETCHER-COPP. Distinguished Originator of the Fletch-System on Visit to Pacific Coast.

Mrs. Evelyn Fletcher-Copp, one of America's most distinguished musical educators, who has had so large a share in revolutionising the music teaching methods for children, is on a visit to the Pacific coast at present a sojourner in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Copp is a musician of sound musical training herself, having supplemented her earlier studies with five years abroad. She was a classmate of Max Rieger, in the class of the celebrated Hugo Reimann, with whom she studied two and a half years in Wiesbaden. Her work abroad included a well rounded course of study, though she specialized in violin. Returning to America she accepted a position at the Bishop Strachen school. Toranto, where she began to evolve the system of music study that has since given her fame. She was dissatisfied with the prevailing method of teaching children, belleving that instead of forcing instruction on young people lestre to study by methods that would trouse interest in the child mind and make for self-expression in the young

In 1897 she formulated her ideas inwhat has since been known as the etcher Method, and on which latter she har spent upwards of $75,000 to perfect, inclusive of patents for models and in promoting

Last Rebel," Two Reel Drame With Ormi Hawley and Earl Met-

An astounding tale of the Civil was told today at the Colonial theatre in the powerful two reel drama entitled the Last Rebel, and with such actors as Earl Metcalf and Ormi Hawley, the film becomes a veritable gem in their hands. It is a story telling of a South-ern girl whose father has lost all his ern girl whose father has lost all his wealth through the war, and also her sweetheart, who is said to have been killed on the battle field. A sorry looking sort of crippled Yankees are being carried through the town, and one especially ill, completely exhausted is brought to the girl's door and left to her nursing. Through him she is enabled to regain title to the old home, and believing her lover dead, accepts the proposal of marriage or the convalencent Yankee After the marriageher old sweetheart returns, having her old sweetheart returns, having been restored to health, and plans rekindling the rebellion. He is correct by the Yankees in an old shack, and in a fierce battle is on the verge of giving up. The Yankee enters the thack secretly and recognizing the light of the rest ered by the Yankees in an old shack, and in a fierce battle is on the verge of giving up. The Yankee enters the shack secretly and recognizing the chap makes him exchange clothing with him and escape. It is a wonderful tale of self-sacrifice, and is told with all the characteristics of a big Lubin feature. Stirring battle scenes, vie with each other in appalling the speciator, and peerless acting crownes the whole feature. A Studio Escape, is the title of the big two reel Selig feature. title of the big two reel Selig feature, which tells of the miraculous escape of a young girl from a life of undesirable corrumstances. The film is a daring one and keeps the spectators in a highly excited state during the entire run of the drama. Claim of Honor, Hiograph royalty picture, and Double Crossing Marmaduke, Kalem, completes the bill. Tomorrow The Blue Mouse is the big feature, presenting Madse Lessing in the sensational leading role. young girl from a life of undesirable

Dorris Willard, the daughter of a village minister, achieves the realization of her great dream, a year at college. Dorris, although a very sweet Stat state's Attorney Notice.

State's Attorney Charles E. Searls gives notice that he will meet attorney her clothes, which are frumpy and all wrong, her dresses and hat having been made by a village dressmaker and milliner, and she looks as though she had stepped out of an album of 30 years back. On her arrival at college the other girls shun her at every opportunity and tell her she doesn't belong with them, making her desperately lonesome and homesick. The picture shows her struggle through college, what she has to fight against and how she finally succeeds and wins the hearts of every girl there, which makes a very interesting and attractive feature. The 16th chapter of The Diamond from the Sky will also be shown on the bill, and this chapter is one of the finest installments of the series. Events begin to happen fast and exciting and the principals in this absorbing drama have their hands full evading the plotting of their enemies.

AT TRE AUDITORIUM.

Today again the five reel picturization of the extraordinary dramatic success entitled. The Captive, featuring Blanche Sweet, one of the prettlest and best known motion picture actresses will be shown as staged by Jesse L. Lasky. The play was written by Cecil B. DeMille and Jeanie Mc-Pherson and is primarily concerned with the romance of a Montenegrin peasant girl and a Turkish nobleman. There is a fine cast, including House Peters, and Billy Elmer, and the settings and mountain scenery are superb. The Broken Coin will also be shown today in the usual two reel episode and the Paramount Trayel pictures are also on the programme. Tomorow and Saturday the management have booked as a feature The Italian, a wonderfully fine film featuring George Beban, who scored such a hit in the big New York success, The Sign of the Rose.

ERNEST M. BLAKE, FRED D. BALLOU, JAMES GRAHAM,

Assessors Notice

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or failing hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—year but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw, it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhiliarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

POETRY

WANDERLUST

Beyond the East the sunrise, beyond the West the sen.
And East and West the wander)ust that will not let the be.
It works in me like madness, dear, to bid me say good bye.
I know not where the white road runs, nor what the blue hills are.
But man on heve the sub for friend, and for his guide a star; and there's no end of voyaging when ame the wires is bland.
For the river calls and the road calls.

End oh, the call wis bird: Tonder the long horizon lies, and there by night and day
The old ships draw to home again, the young ships sall away;
And come I may, but go I must, and if sies ask you way.
You may put the blame on the stars and the sun and the white road and the say.

Gerald Gould.

-Gerald Gould. THE BESETTING SIN.

the first and worst of all the sins is seifsburger, he wise men say: it each other crime begins. That makes man stumble on his way and keeps him yet an earthly clod. Then he might else commune with God.

Tis saldahness that fills the beart With envy, malice, discontant, and with a devious crooked art. To evil bends the good we meant when to gross self we rear a shrine We every kindly thought resign. There may be much in you, my friend.
That should excite the world's applause,
But failure grim will be your end.
Unless to think a bit you pause.
Dethrone the ido! that is self.
And lay it on some dusty shelf.
